

Awards and Recognition

In 2010 the work of several scientists at the CNIO has been recognised through scientific awards, appointments and recognition as detailed below.

Awards

María A. Blasco

- "Santiago Ramón y Cajal" National Research Award in Biology 2010, Spain
- Lilly Foundation Biomedical Research Award 2010 for best preclinical research, Spain

Óscar Fernández-Capetillo

- Beckman-Coulter Award, Spanish Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (SEBBM)
- IMPULSA Award, Prince of Girona Foundation, Spain

María S. Soengas

- Valencia IDEA Award in Biotechnology and Biomedicine, Ayuntamiento de Valencia, Spain

Editorial Boards

María A. Blasco

- Editorial Board Member, Aging & Disease

Other appointments

Miguel Ángel Piris

- Member, German Academy of Sciences Leopoldina

María A. Blasco

- Member, Agenda Ciudadana de Ciencia e Innovación Expert Panel, Spain
- Member, Scientific Advisory Board, Fundación Príncipes de Girona, Spain

Juan C. Cigudosa

- Member, Board of Directors, European Cytogeneticists Association (2010-2014)

Francisco X. Real

- Member, Scientific Advisory Board, Pancreatic Cancer Research, UK
- Member, External Advisory Committee, Instituto Ramón y Cajal de Investigación Sanitaria (IRYCIS), Spain

Marta Sánchez-Carbayo

- Member, Scientific Board, Genitourinary Group, European Group on Tumour Markers (EGTM)
- Head, Proteomics Working Group, International Society of Oncology and Biomarkers (ISOBM)

María S. Soengas

- Elected Board Member, Melanoma Research Foundation Steering Committee, USA

Alfonso Valencia

- "Doctor Technices Honoris Causa", Technical University of Denmark
- Fellow, The International Society for Computational Biology, USA